

Artificial Intelligence in Stroke Detection

Location: Canada

Number of participants: 2

Recruitment period: May-June 2024

Description: Canada's Drug Agency is looking for 2 individuals from anywhere across Canada who have had a hemorrhagic stroke, for 1:1 interview to speak about their diagnosis and perspectives on artificial intelligence in reviewing their imaging. They hope to speak with individuals in May or early June 2024.

Language: English-only.

Eligibility: The primary focus is that individuals must have had a hemorrhagic stroke and be in recovery, who are able and willing to share their thoughts and perspectives on their experiences.

Participant requirements:

Institution: Canada's Drug Agency (formerly known as CADTH)

Contact: Angie Hamson angela.hamson@cadth.ca Patient Engagement Officer